My avatar's crazy. She's wearing a flight attendant's uniform with trainers and huge sunglasses. And she's holding a pink umbrella. I want people to remember her!

I wanted my avatar to look like me, so he's wearing jeans, a black T-shirt and trainers. It was really hard to get his hair to look like mine, but I'm quite happy with him.

My avatar is really fashionable. She's wearing black boots, a red skirt, and a big woolly sweater. And she's got a matching black belt and bag too. Isn't she gorgeous?

I love detective movies, so I made my avatar like an old-fashioned detective. He's wearing a suit with a long coat and a hat. He's really cool.
